MY SUDOKU COLLECTION

Posted by Drew Dernavich

I don't like to play Sudoku. It involves math, which is difficult and makes no sense. More importantly, a Sudoku puzzle often takes up a spot that could be used for a cartoon.

I do collect Sudoku puzzles, however, from various magazines and newspapers. Here are a few that caught my eye:

TEEN SUDOKU WITH A TWIST!

Fill in the boxes so that the nine rows, nine columns, and nine boxes all contain the name of a girl who is, IYHO, a total biatch.

For instance, you could fill in the letters in the top row to spell the name Michelina, that skank, who, like, totally tried to hook up with your friend Jeremy.

SUDOKU for CONTEMPORARY ARTISTS

Instructions:

1. Conclude that logic and mathematics, like reality, are just social constructs which Republicans use to try to oppress you.
2. Leave puzzle undone. Rip out this page and recycle it.
3. Sit naked in a bathtub full of crude oil, and erotically lick a blue raspberry popsicle. Document it somehow.
4. Collect your check from the Whitney.

Greetings, foreign journalists! Welcome to the Sudoku puzzle page of Beijing's largest daily newspaper.

As you can see, we have provided the answers for you already.

Now get out!
